Black History Month Connections
What will you organize to make February a meaningful Black History month for your students with HistoryMakers Connections?

___ I have arranged for speakers for my class
HistoryMakers who will visit in February:

_____________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________

Other speakers who will visit my class and with whom we will use HistoryMakers materials:

_____________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________

___ My students will present profiles they prepare to other classes

___ My students will provide materials they developed ___ displays       ___ booklets or other materials for other classes

___ My students will ________________________________

FAX TO 773-325-4321 BY FEBRUARY 1ST.

Name: ________________________________________________
School: _____________________________________________