Women’s History Month Connections
What will you organize to make March a meaningful Women’s History month for your students with HistoryMakers Connections?

___ I have arranged for speakers for my class

HistoryMakers who will visit in March:

_____________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________

Other speakers who will visit my class and with whom we will use HistoryMakers materials:

_____________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________

___ My students will present profiles they prepare to other classes

___ My students will provide materials they developed __ displays  __ booklets or other materials for other classes

___ My students will ____________________________________

FAX TO 773-325-4321 BY MARCH 1ST.

Name: _______________________________________________

School: _____________________________________________