

5/14/09

Jane Addams

Dear Mayor Daley;

We think Chicago should have more jobs. It will make Chicago a better place to live because that way people who don't have that much money could actually find a job easier and have enough money to support their families. We also think that if Chicago could offer more jobs it wouldn't be that many homeless because instead of asking for money they could work and live better.

Thank you, Sincerely,