

Dear mayor Daily,

Our big idea is to have free health insurance for every one in Chicago. It's a great idea because some people can't afford health insurance. Another reason it is a good idea is some people might die because they won't be able to go to the doctor.

It will take a long time to because people need to convince the mayor. Chicago will be a better place with people with health insurance.

From

Daril Boone Elementary School