

CTE REAL WORLD CONCEPTS:

Which of these concepts would build student self-esteem—and interest?
They can be used to: create BIG/ENDURING IDEAS or organize activities.
They also can be vocabulary included in any week's lesson plan.

<input type="radio"/> accuracy	<input type="radio"/> apprenticeship
<input type="radio"/> career	<input type="radio"/> change
<input type="radio"/> collaboration	<input type="radio"/> competence
<input type="radio"/> creativity	<input type="radio"/> leadership
<input type="radio"/> manager	<input type="radio"/> opportunity
<input type="radio"/> persistence	<input type="radio"/> precision
<input type="radio"/> problem solving	<input type="radio"/> product
<input type="radio"/> productivity	<input type="radio"/> professional
<input type="radio"/> proficient	<input type="radio"/> progress
<input type="radio"/> promotion	<input type="radio"/> qualified
<input type="radio"/> quality	<input type="radio"/> reliability
<input type="radio"/> responsibility	<input type="radio"/> skillful
<input type="radio"/> standards	<input type="radio"/> supervision
<input type="radio"/> teamwork	<input type="radio"/> technology