

Story Interpreter: Feelings

CCSSR 3. Analyze how and why individuals, events, and ideas develop and interact over the course of a text.

Feelings are part of every story.

Think about one of the main characters in a story.

How does the character feel in different parts of the story?

At the beginning When something important happens At the end What does the character learn from what happens in the story? If the character changes, explain how and why. How:	Character:
At the beginning When something important happens At the end What does the character learn from what happens in the story? If the character changes, explain how and why. How:
When something important happens At the end What does the character learn from what happens in the story? If the character changes, explain how and why. How:	When	Feeling	Why the Character Feels this Way
When something important happens At the end What does the character learn from what happens in the story? If the character changes, explain how and why. How:	At the
Something important happens At the end What does the character learn from what happens in the story? If the character changes, explain how and why. How:	beginning
Something important happens At the end What does the character learn from what happens in the story? If the character changes, explain how and why. How:
Something important happens At the end What does the character learn from what happens in the story? If the character changes, explain how and why. How:
Something important happens At the end What does the character learn from what happens in the story? If the character changes, explain how and why. How:
Mhat does the character learn from what happens in the story? If the character changes, explain how and why. How:	When
At the end What does the character learn from what happens in the story? If the character changes, explain how and why. How:	something
At the end What does the character learn from what happens in the story? If the character changes, explain how and why. How:	important
What does the character learn from what happens in the story? If the character changes, explain how and why. How:	happens
What does the character learn from what happens in the story? If the character changes, explain how and why. How:
What does the character learn from what happens in the story? If the character changes, explain how and why. How:	At the end
If the character changes, explain how and why. How:	710 0110
If the character changes, explain how and why. How:
If the character changes, explain how and why. How:
If the character changes, explain how and why. How:
If the character changes, explain how and why. How:
If the character changes, explain how and why. How:	What does the character learn from what hannens in the story?
How:	What about the origination found what happens in the story:
How:
How:
How:	If the character changes, explain how and why.
Why:	How:
Why:
Why:
	Why:			