Dear Mayor Daley

My name is _____ and am nine years old. My class is writing you letters.

I learned three things about Chicago. One of those was a boat nobody ate ketchup on their hotdog's. The second thing I learned that a boat was Maxwell's street.

They sold hot dogs and clothes and equipment. The third thing I learned was about the Hull house.

I learned that Jane Addams made it. It was for people that were immigrants.

My dream for Chicago is to make more class rooms and more go flit

School's so we won't have a lot of people in one classroom and more school's so we won't have a lot of people one classroom

We won't be be crowded in our classrooms because there is not enough space in the class room.

Thank you for spending your time reading my letter.
I hope you make some changes to Chicago

Sincerely,
