Dear Mr. Mayor

Hi! My name is _____ I'm writing this letter to you because I have an idea about the city. My idea is that we should have shelters in every neighborhood for homeless people. I realized it was a great idea because when my mom was driving me somewhere, I saw these homeless people sitting on the street, begging for money. I thought "I feel bad for these people. You know what? The city should build shelters in every neighborhood." That's how I thought of the idea. To make my plan happen, the city would need construction workers and money to pay the construction workers, money to pay for food supplies, and furniture. So if you round it all up, the city will probably need 10,000 dollars or more. The city will be different because you won't be seeing homeless people around so much. And you won't be seeing people say "Spare change, please!" So Mr. Mayor if you don't make this idea a reality, it's ok. But if you do, I would be so happy because it is helping and making the homeless people happy.

Sincerely,
