

Dear Mr. Daley,

People think that they can throw garbage on the ground like there was a garbage can all over the place. And people think that other people like the people that pick up garbage will pick it up but they are not going to.

So my idea is that I am going to stop littering.

First I am going to do fund-raising in every school by making my own book fair at each school.

By _____