

Dear Mr. Mayor

May 15, 2009

I want to make Chicago a better place by building more Homeless shelters. We can give people homes if they have never had a home. Homeless people could have a home that makes them happy. No people on the street means a good and safe also clean world. Less people on the street. I wish I see you at the Homeless shelter in the Soup Kitchen.

Sincerely yours,