

Online Resources

*Useful On-Line Resources Available at No Cost
These resources also are useful to classroom teachers.
Every Family has Internet Access at the Chicago Public Library*

Reading, Writing, and Vocabulary

On-Line Activities from Scholastic—all subjects and grades

<http://www2.scholastic.com/browse/learn.jsp>

Between the Lions—Reading and Vocabulary Games and Activities from PBS

<http://pbskids.org/lions/>

International Children's Digital Library (ICDL)

<http://www.icdlbooks.org>

Merriam-Webster Online: The Language Center

<http://www.m-w.com/>

Reading Rockets

<http://www.readingrockets.org>

Young Authors' Workshop

<http://www.planet.eon.net/%7Ebplaroach/Teacher.html>

The Comic Book Project

<http://www.comicbookproject.org/>

Free Rice

<http://freerice.com> This is an online site where you can strengthen vocabulary.

Writing with Writers—Guided writing about interesting topics, grades 3-8

<http://teacher.scholastic.com/writewit/>

Activities for ESL Learners

<http://a4esl.org/>

Reading Tips for Spanish-Speaking Parents

<http://www.colorincolorado.org/>