

5/13/09

Dear Mayor Daley,

I've been thinking about Chicago's taxes. And I had an idea. My idea was if you cut taxes people could use the money for more important things. Some of those things would be clothes, food and rent. With families able to spend that money on those things, they also have the money to pay their bills. Thank you for your time.

Sincerely