

May 12²⁰

Dear Mayor Daley.

My name is [redacted] I think you can make the food prices lower because some people can't pay the bills or taxes or because some people don't have enough money. And because if you save money people could buy clothes or shoes for the kids or themselves. People could buy more food and some don't have that much.

Sincerely,
[redacted]