Dear Mr. Daily,

I think you should make more cameras so people will not be killed on the streets from gang members and if you say no to the gang members to kill the person that said no.

I think it is stupid because if it is their own gang, the person from their own gang kills the person because the person that killed him is from a different gang. Just because they said no to the person, it's the end of the road for their life.

I hope I put enough facts in my topic about safety, for you to understand.

Sincerely
