

Dear Mayor Richard Daley,

My name is [redacted] and I am in third grade at Jesse Sherwood Elementary. If I could change something in Chicago I would change the prices that are in the stores because the prices are too high for just something little and it costs too much money. I would want to change the markets because they have so many things and the prices are too much money, too.

Love

market

1.99	2.85
6.33	8.65
3.86	9.99
8.88	9.69
8.34
Fruit

UGH!

