

May 13, 2009

Dear Mr. Mayor,

My big idea is after school learning centers in every neighborhood. It is good because kids could receive homework help. All kids can learn to play instruments and creative arts.

The city need to make my plan happen because the will be different. Because it will will cost a lot of money they need to lower taxes.

More kids learning and off the streets and less crime in neighborhoods and better test scores

Sincerely,