

The water, the water
Oh! So choppy,
But this is my favorite hobby!
It leaves us no choice but to stay in the canoe.
The storm is coming,
How can you tell?
The sky, the sky is no longer blue,
It is gray.
Oh! So gray.
We captured our fish for the day.
Almost forty fish in the net we pray.
Life's not so bad at sea,
Just think about it.
We did not have to pay.
