

Think : Your Name:

1. Draw a picture of your proverb.
DO NOT WRITE OUT THE PROVERB.

Pair-Partner's Name:

1. Which proverb did your partner draw? Write the proverb here:

An enemy will agree, but a friend will argue

Compare

1. Was your partner right?

Yes Lea was right

2. What does your proverb mean?

My proverb means that enemies will come to agreement before friends

2. What does your partner's proverb mean?

A enemy will only agree just to get what they want but a friend will argue because they love you

2. Did you agree or disagree?

What was alike in your thinking?
What was different? disagree about friends and enemies