

My Favorite Citizen

CCSSW Anchor Standard 1. Write arguments to support claims in an analysis of substantive topics or texts using valid reasoning and relevant and sufficient evidence.

There are many people in your community who are great citizens. They would be great leaders, too.

Choose one citizen in your community who you think should be elected President.

Who is the citizen?

Why do you think this person should be President?

What kinds of changes would this person make to help Chicago?

Make a list of reasons why voters should choose this person as President.
