BOLD PLANS  Letter to the Mayor
I can write a persuasive text.

What’s my big idea?  What do I want the mayor to understand?

________________________________________________________________________

How will I start my letter?

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

What will I include to make my idea clear?
(You can use the boxes to number the order in which you will use each part.)

□

□

□

□

□

How will I end so I am sure I made my idea clear?

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________