Read to Learn
I can organize information I find about a topic.

Choose one topic.

Topic: ____________________________________________________

Write a BIG question about it.

Question I will answer: _________________________________________

Then answer your question – find information to answer it.

Information I found to answer it:

Write the news—the new things you now know.
Explain what you learned that is most important.