

Textbook Outline: Frogs

TOPIC: _____
(Write the topic about frogs you will explain.)

Author: _____

Make your book outline here.

We have given you a basic outline.

You can change it to make it fit your topic.

1. _____

A.

B.

C.

2. _____

A.

B.

C.

Here is an example. You can use it or make your own outline.

Topic: How do frogs live?

1. Subtopic: Where frogs live

A. frogs that live on land

B. frogs that live in water

2. Subtopic: How frogs grow

A. tadpoles

B. from tadpole to frogs

C. adult frogs

3. Subtopic: Ways frogs stay alive

A. ways frogs move

B. ways frogs get food

C. ways frogs protect themselves

After you make your outline, find the information to write about each subtopic. The more you find clear examples the better. Make notes about what you learn. Label your note with the part of the outline it fits.

Then plan the pages in your book. This is a basic layout to help you plan what they will look like.

Page 1	Page 2
Page 3	Page 4

Add as many pages as you need.

Then write the book on paper.

When you finish, make the table of contents.

Then make the cover.

You can put your book into a computer, too.
