

Nonfiction Readers Look for Ideas

An idea is a way of thinking about something. For example, Chicago is the name of a city. But that is just a topic. It's not an idea. Here is an idea about Chicago: Chicago is a big busy city.

You can figure out the main idea two ways. You can start with what you think is the main idea and look for information and examples that support it. Or you can start with information and use that to infer the main idea they support.

Read a nonfiction passage and tell what an important idea is that you learn.
