Expository Paragraph Organizer: Profile a Person
Common Core Anchor Writing Standard 2 Write informative/explanatory texts to examine and convey complex ideas and information clearly and accurately through the effective selection, organization, and analysis of content.

An expository writer uses words to explain or describe something.
Use this page to organize an expository paragraph.
Your paragraph will tell what someone would see if they saw a place.

What is the place you will describe? _____

What is the main idea of your paragraph?
 What do you want people to understand about this place?

_____

Then list parts of the place you will include in your paragraph.

Part	Adjectives

Then for each part, list adjectives you will use to help people see what you are telling about the place.

Then decide how you will start your paragraph.

I will start by explaining _____

Then decide how you will end it.

I will end by telling _____

Write your paragraph on another page.

Then draw a picture to illustrate it.