
Show Your Thinking

I can locate and classify information. (1B)

This chart asks students to locate and classify information about any topic. First, the teacher or students need to insert the categories in the chart. Then students locate and list information for each category.

For example, students could look for and classify information about an ecosystem: plants, animals, climate.

Or about a time period in history: events, people, places.

Category:	Category:	Category: