I Can Analyze a Story or History Completely and Carefully

List two of the main characters or persons. Tell one trait of each.

Put the page number on which you find the action the character takes that shows that.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Character/Person</th>
<th>Trait</th>
<th>Action that Shows the Trait</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

What is the most important event in the story or history? Draw or describe it.

Why it is so important? __________________________________________

Summarize the story or history.

____________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________

What is the central idea or message of the story or history?

____________________________________________________________

Which part of the story or event supports that idea most strongly? __________________