Graph Proportions
CCSS Math Practice Standard 2. Reason abstractly and quantitatively.
Task: Construct and analyze a graph showing proportions.

1. Locate and collect information about a situation. Put it on a table.

2. Use that information to make a circle graph.

Title of the Graph: ______________________________________________________

What My Graph Shows:

_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________