I can infer the author’s purpose.

What did you read? __________________________________________

What was it about? __________________________________________

Why did the author write the passage?

__________________________________________________________________

Why do you think that was the purpose?

__________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________

What do you think the author wanted you to understand when you read the passage?

__________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________

What would you tell the author about what you liked about the passage?

__________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________