I can identify/analyze/infer cause-effect.

Answer these questions about any story.
First, find an important action or choice someone makes.

- What do you find in the story that tells you what caused someone to do that? What do you infer caused it?

- What did that lead to—that is an effect. What does the story say happens because of that action? What do you predict it will lead to? What will people do next?