EXPAND THINKING WITH DRAMA

CCSSW3. Write narratives to develop real or imagined experiences or events using effective technique, well-chosen details, and well-structured event sequences.

Situation or Story: ________________________________________________

Who’s in it?

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Who</th>
<th>Characteristics</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

What happens?

_________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________

What is the theme or main idea?
It could be a lesson people can learn from it.

_________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________

Write the play.
Write what each person might say.

Center for Urban Education ©2012