

The following words were identified as important to school progress by parents, teachers, and administrators from Bond, Colemon, Cook, Calumet, Cuffe, Earhart, Fort Dearborn and Gresham Schools at the School Leadership Institute on August 16, 2005.

- Accountability.
- Collaboration.
- Commitment.
- Communication.
- Consistent.
- Continuous evaluation
- Cooperation.
- Dedication.
- Determination.
- Effectiveness.
- Good leadership.
- Loyalty.
- Patience.
- Persistence.
- Respect.
- Results.
- Teamwork.
- Tolerance.
- Understanding.

Developed for the Parent Community Partnership Program, Chicago Public Schools. Program resources include resources developed for the Teacher Leadership Network, sponsored by the Polk Bros. Foundation. These materials and related resources are available at <http://teacher.depaul.edu>

