

History Connects the Disciplines

You may decide to combine the content areas as you study one place.
Here is an example.

Place: _____

Geography: How does geography affect how people live?
How do they affect geography?

History Connection: What has changed? Why?

Culture: How do people live? What are their values?

History Connection: How has the culture changed? Why?

Economy: How do get what they need to live?

History connection: How has the economy changed?

How have those changes affected people?

Civics: How does the government work?

History Connection: How has the government changed?

How have those changes affected people?