

Open-Ended Questions Clarify Learning Problems

Ways to assess student learning—to identify students' progress and needs—that informs teachers that there is a problem and what kind of problem it is.	Response to Learning Needs--Ways to help students who need support.
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Students respond to open-ended questions.</li> <li>2. Students answer multiple-choice questions and explain the reason for the choice.</li> <li>3. Students complete a graphic organizer.</li> <li>4. Students write explanations of how to use a skill.</li> <li>5. Students write daily response about what they learn.</li> <li>6. Students write weekly summary of what they learn.</li> <li>7. Students make a booklet/short report on what they learn.</li> <li>8. _____</li> </ol>	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. peer coach</li> <li>2. teacher models</li> <li>3. students model</li> <li>4. help them write notes that explain it</li> <li>5. give clear written steps to follow</li> <li>6. give example</li> <li>7. students work in pairs</li> <li>8. "chunk" the content or skill—break it into smaller parts</li> <li>9. complete a graphic organizer</li> <li>10. _____</li> <li>11. _____</li> <li>12. _____</li> </ol>