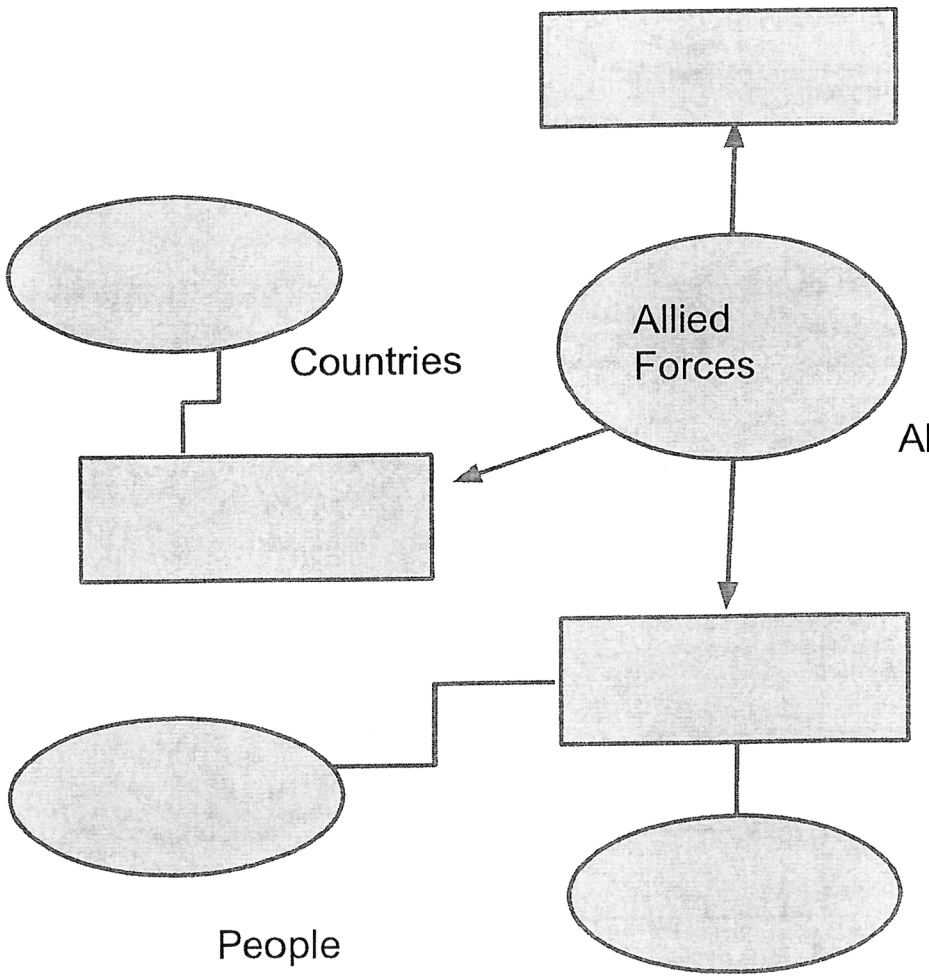
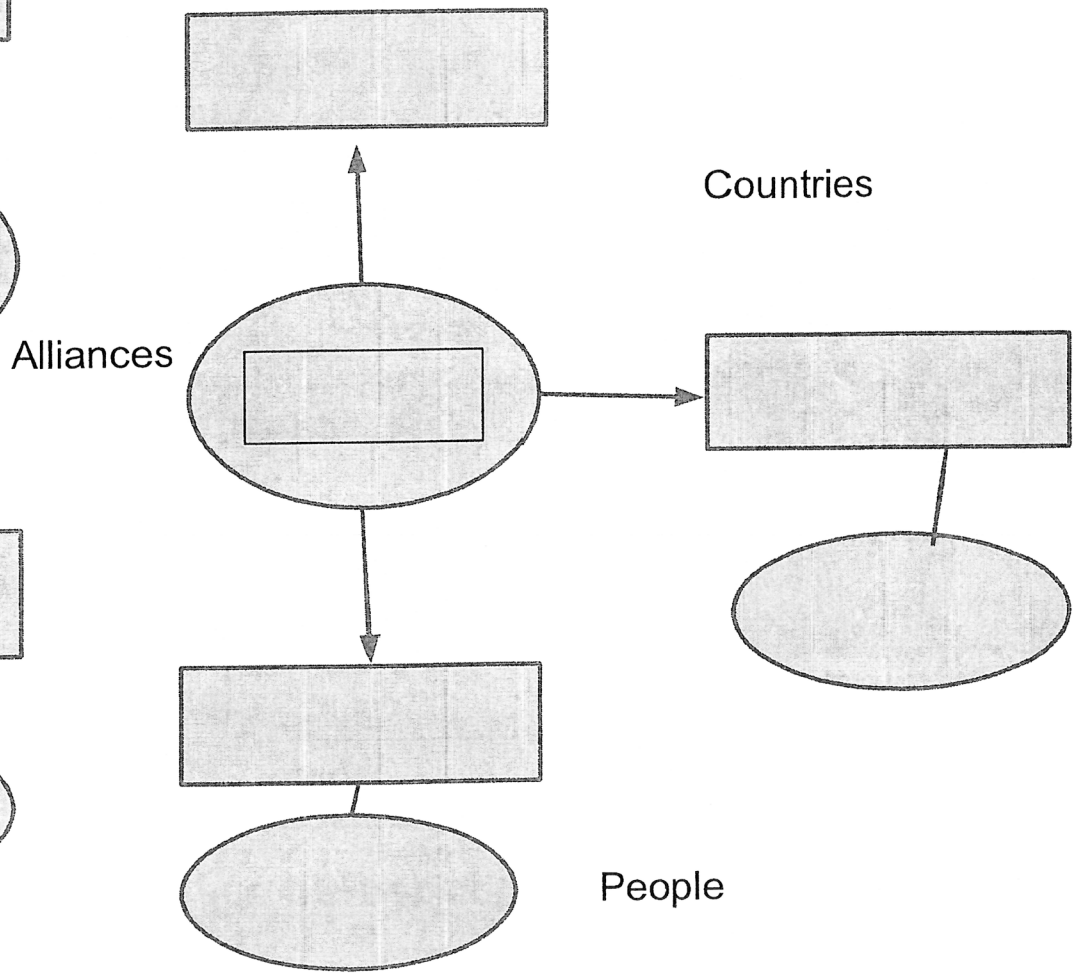
PETER BARASH

Match and Drag the causes and effects to the proper column (2pts per pair)

Cause	Effect
Treaty of Versailles	Unprepared for aerial invasion at Pearl Harbor
Rosie the Riveter inspires women to work	Nazis are not fully prepared for invasion at D-day
U.S. military stuck in old ways	German economy collapses
Allies create a fake army to confuse the Germans	Millions of men leave their jobs to fight in the war

Double click shapes to add information. Rectangles represent countries. Ovals represent people associated with the country. (1 pt each)





Support Claims With Evidence

Complete sentences (2 pts each)

CLAIM	EVIDENCE
The Treaty of Versailles helped the Nazis come into power.	1. 2.

CLAIM	EVIDENCE
Propaganda influenced people's behavior and attitudes towards the war, the enemy and how they could help their country.	1. 2. 3.

D-Day

Drag the info into the appropriate box. (1 pt each)

Many soldiers jumped into chest-high water getting out of their boat

Use fake army to conceal invasion location

Successfully sent allied troops into France

Force Hitler to fight war on two fronts on either side of Germany

High tide pushed many ships off course.

German forces retreated back towards Germany.

Paratroopers to parachute behind enemy lines to create chaos

Flooded beaches made moving up the beaches vey difficult.

Create a supply line across the English channel into mainland Europe.

200,000 Allied soldiers died in the fight associated with D-Day

Obstacles (3)

Objectives (2)

Planning (2)

Outcomes (3)

Hiroshima Pro/Con

Complete Sentences - (2 pts each)

PRO - We should have dropped the bomb

1.

2.

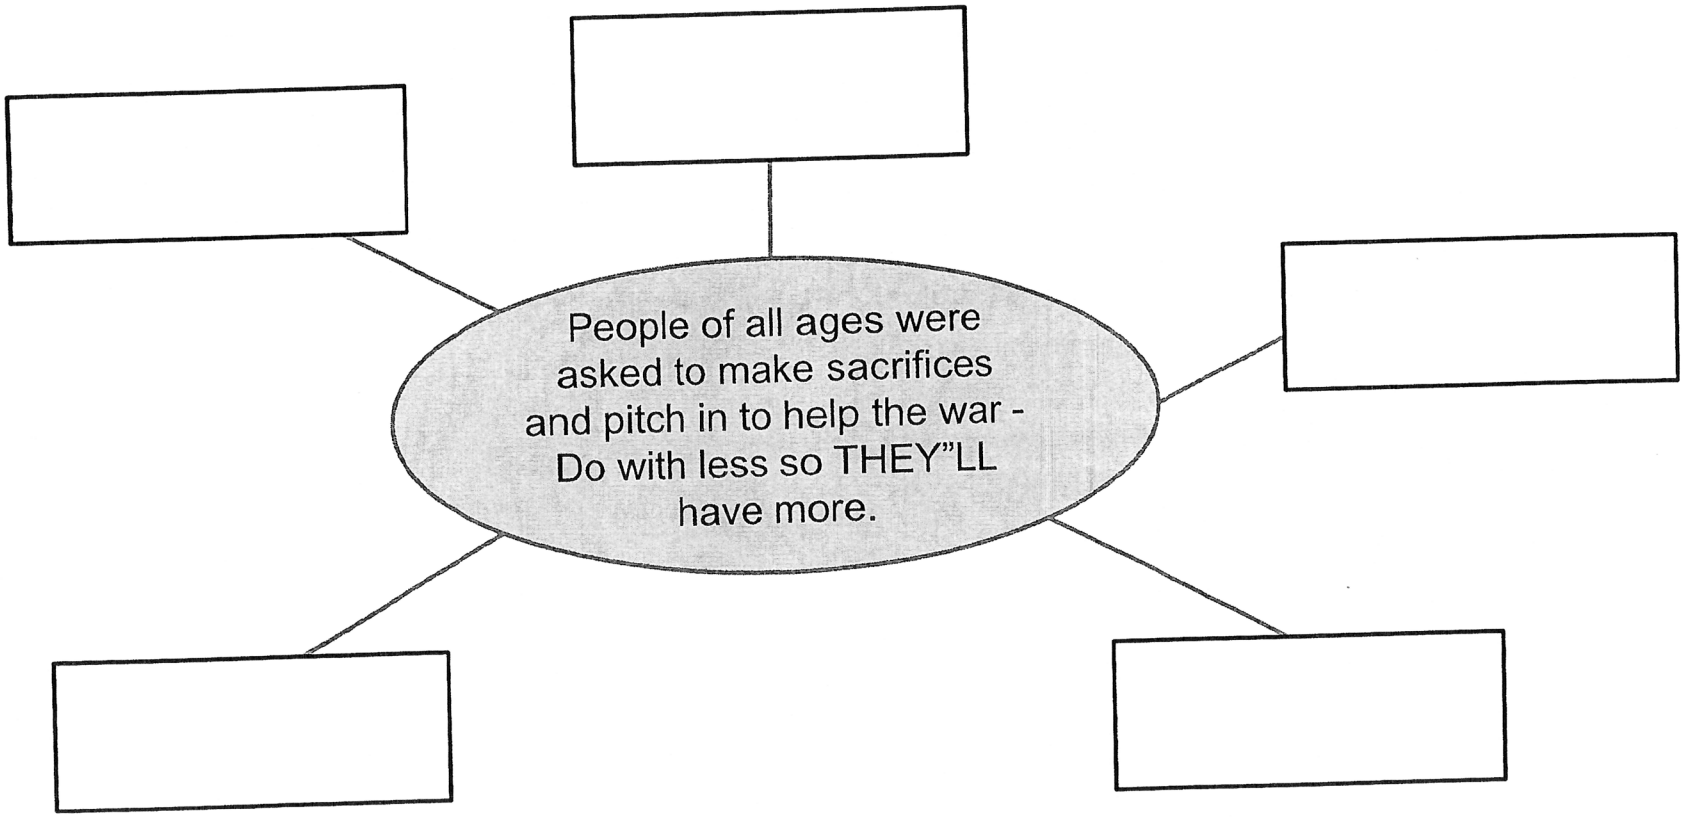
3.

CON - We should not have dropped the bomb

1.

2.

3.

Homefront Sacrifices


Provide examples of the types of ways that Americans contributed to the war from home (1 pt each)