

STRATEGY: Assign TV Homework!

QUESTIONS FOCUS THINKING

Reading Success

Questions to ask after your child reads a story—or watches a television show.

- > Who is your favorite character? Why do you like that person best?
- > What choice did one character make? Why? What happened because of that choice?
- > What do you think people can learn from this story?

Questions to ask after your child reads about history or science—or watches a TV program.

- > What were the most important facts you learned? Make a list.
 - > What do you think a good title for this report would be? Look at your list.
- What would you tell people to do based on this report?
- > For a history topic: What lesson can people learn today from this history?

Ask other questions that you think of as you watch TV or read with your child. This is a good way to help children think and learn more any time and every grade.
