

A CHICAGO ECONOMY BOOK

This outline can be adapted to create a Chicago economy textbook written by students at any age. You can turn this outline into a Big Book.

This example focuses on work.

You can focus on business, on changes in the workplace, on any topic that students learn as they study the economy.

COVER: PICTURE SHOWING A PLACE OR PLACES IN CHICAGO CHICAGO WORK BOOK	Page 1: What is work? Let me explain. <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> In this book, I will tell about the work people do in Chicago.
---	--

Page 2: A worker does a job. This is one worker I know. This is the job this worker does. <hr/> <hr/> This picture shows what this worker does.	Page 3. A worker uses skills. These are some of the skills this worker uses. <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> This picture shows this worker using those skills.
Page 4: A worker uses tools. These pictures show some of the tools this worker uses.	Page 5: A worker has a workplace. This worker works in this place: <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> This picture shows that workplace.

Page 6:

I am a worker.

Let me tell you about my work.

This picture shows how me at work.

Page 7:

Questions

Did you learn from my book? If you did, then answer these questions.
