

Transportation and Jobs

Movement links places.

Look n the newspaper for ads for jobs.

Long ago, most jobs were in the downtown area.

There still are many jobs in downtown businesses and agencies, but there are many jobs in the suburbs, too.

How many jobs in today's paper are in the downtown area?

How many jobs in today's paper are in the suburbs?

Then, take a survey. Find out what people predict:

Where will more people work in the 21st century:

___downtown ___suburbs

FUTURE TRANSPORTATION

Use the results of your survey to decide what kinds of improvements people in transportation should make today. Write suggestions for improving transportation so that people will be able to travel easily to work in the 21st century.
