

I can infer the author's purpose.

What did you read? _____

What was it about? _____

Why did the author write the passage?

Why do you think that was the purpose?

What do you think the author wanted you to understand when you read the passage?

What would you tell the author about what you liked about the passage?
