

A story writer or artist uses parts to tell you one theme.

Identify and Support the Theme of a Story

CCSSR2—analyze the parts to figure out the theme.

Think it through.

The theme of a story is a way of thinking about the whole story.

Write words or draw pictures that show important parts of the story.

Then write the theme in the middle.