2. Draw a picture of your proverb.
DO NOT WRITE OUT THE PROVERB.

2. What does your proverb mean?

A small child can teach an older person new things.

This is a neat take -- thinking of elephants as older people!

1. Which proverb did your partner draw? Write the proverb here: A gentle hand may lead even an elephant by a single hair.

2. What does your partner's proverb mean?

A kind person may lead anyone or anything by the smallest things.

Interesting!
Great job

2. Did you agree or disagree? What was alike in your thinking? What was different?

I agree with the Proverb because "a gentle hand" could mean something small that someone says.

Do you agree with your partner? How was your thinking alike?
