

Expository Paragraph Organizer: Profile a Place

Common Core Anchor Writing Standard 2 Write informative/explanatory texts to examine and convey complex ideas and information clearly and accurately through the effective selection, organization, and analysis of content.

An expository writer uses words to explain or describe something.
Use this page to organize an expository paragraph about a place.

What is the place you will describe? _____

What is the main idea of your paragraph? That is the idea you want people to understand about this place. For example, it is a place where people help others.

List facts about the place that will help people understand that idea.

How will you start your paragraph?

I will start by explaining _____

How will you end your paragraph?

I will end by telling _____

Write your paragraph on another page.

Then draw a picture to show the place.